Purpose

To maintain and expand EverGreen's integrated farm in order to provide employment for subsistence level farmers in low income communities of Greenville. Evergreen was created in September 2000 and subsequently established programs in environmental education, reforestation and community development. In 2005, Evergreen began working with 1000 subsistence farmers and created jobs for 55 community members. The funds allocated will create additional jobs for the community members within the year.

Grant Period: One year from date of award
Total Agency Budget for 2003: $1,000,000 operating budget only
Funding Request: $100,000

Respectfully Submitted,

Paul Johnson
Institutional Development Director
